Kennedy Signs Satellite Bill Today

A whopping 72 per cent of American husbands help their wives with the dishes, reveals a survey by Jensen-Thorsen Corp., which makes stainless steel sinks and wanted to find out who was using them.

Male pride is putting up a last-ditch fight though. Only 14 per cent of husbands pitch in on dishes every night, the Jensen-Thorsen survey discloses.

"I guess that proves that the husband still wears the pants in the typical American family—and if you don't believe it, look under his apron," quips Karl Jensen, president of the Addison, Ill., manufacturing firm which makes more than 50 models of Jensen stainless steel sinks.

The Jensen survey finds that the greatest number of husbands—41 per cent—help with the dishes at frequent intervals "probably once or twice a week." Another 17 per cent grabs a dish towel only on special occasions such as the aftermath of company dinners.

A stubborn 28 per cent refuses to do a dish.

Jensen suspects they are fighting a losing battle. "There's no doubt about it. There has been a breakdown of the traditional masculine and feminine roles in the household. We are not going to take sides on this matter—but any time we design a new sink we will be sharply aware that men might be using it," he says.

Significantly, almost all the 14 per cent who do dishes daily have working wives, the Jensen survey reveals. Commenting on their readiness to don aprons, they said things like, "She brings home a pay check too. It's only fair that I help with the dishes," or "My wife puts in a full-time day at her office, and it's not right to expect her to do all the work at home as well."

At the other extreme, the diehard 28 per cent scorned dishes as "women's work." One husband growled, "the only chance I get to relax is when she is doing the dishes and I can sit down and read the paper."

But even here, the Jensen survey uncovered evidence that the apron isn't always where you would expect to find it. Admitted one husband, "Of course I let my wife do the dishes alone. That's her part of the job. I do the cooking."

Ogle Youth Admits Setting Barn Fires

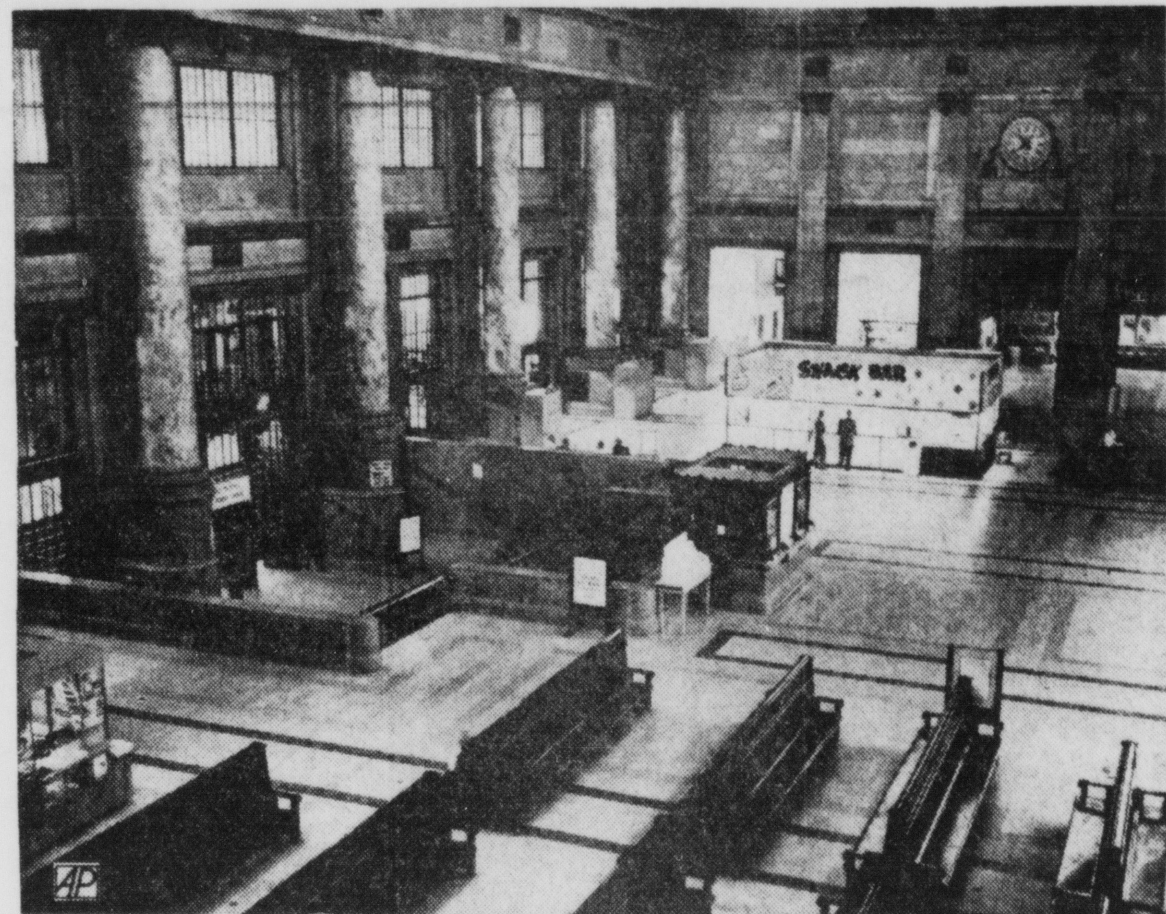

OREGON—A 14-year-old rural Oregon youth, son of a tenant on a Don Brooke farm, has admitted to Ogle County Sheriff's officials he set fires in both barns recently destroyed by fire on two Brooke farms. The youth said he liked the thrill of seeing the fire engines coming.

The boy was apprehended Thursday after he started three grass fires on one of the farms. Chief Deputy Sheriff William Spencer noticed footprints around the fires and made an investigation.

Total losses in the barn fires have been estimated by Brooke at $60,000 to $70,000.

A barn on the Brooke farm north of Grand Detour on the Ridge Road was destroyed by flames Aug. 4, with the loss of 3,000 bales of hay and milking equipment inside the barn. Milking operations were transferred to another farm about a mile and one-half away where a fire Wednesday wiped out the barn, destroying 1,300 bales of hay, milking equipment and a wagon.

Both fires took place in the early afternoon and the barns were completely leveled by flames. A windmill tower near the Ridge Road barn and a cement silo by the Rt. 2 barn remain standing as mute reminders.

DESERTED TERMINAL TELLS RAIL STRIKE STORY — The Chicago & North Western Railway passenger terminal in Chicago presented this dismal appearance early Aug. 30 at a time when it usually is jammed with commuters. A strike by 1,000 members of the AFL-CIO Order of Railroad Telegraphers has brought a halt to the railroad's passenger and freight service. Chicago commuters sought other means of transportation. Rail, Union Leaders Discuss Halt Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Leaders of the strike-bound Chicago and North Western Railway and the striking Order of Railroad Telegraphers met today in a third floor hotel dining room today to discuss their dispute at a federal mediator's urging.

The management and union executives sat down with poker-faces for the closed door meeting with Francis A. O'Neill Jr., of the National Mediation Board.

Before the session, O'Neill commented to newsmen, "Both sides have an obligation to settle this strike." He said a lengthy strike would hurt both sides because the public is the only client, and can place much of its business elsewhere.

However, conferees indicated little hope that the walkout of some 1,000 telegraphers and idling of 16,500 North Western employees could be ended before next week.

The stoppage Friday made a ghost carrier of the big Midwestern rail system, third largest in the nation.

The strike over job elimination issues by fewer than 1,000 AFL-CIO telegraphers made a ghost carrier of the nation's third largest rail system.

Chicago Execs In Crash

PORTAGE, Ind. (AP) — Three representatives of a Chicago manufacturing firm died and a fourth was injured critically when their plane crashed and burned in a field here today.

The dead were identified as John MacLean III, secretary of MacLean-Fogg Lock Nut Co., Chicago; Robert Bowler, the firm's Wisconsin sales representative, and Edward Rankowski, a plant supervisor.

Reported in critical condition in Mercy Hospital in nearby Gary was Paul Burks, another plant supervisor.

Bowler was believed to have been the pilot of the private plane.

Barry MacLean, brother of the dead official, said the four men had started out from Chicago for a business trip to the National Machine Co., at Tiffin, Ohio.

The plane came out of overcast skies and fell a short distance north of U.S. 6.

Goldberg and Wirtz

JFK Appointees In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two members of a mutual admiration society have returned to Washington, delighted with their new, higher stations in government life.

Puns and talk of filling shoes were in the air Thursday as W. Willard Wirtz and Arthur J. Goldberg met newsmen.

Goldberg is leaving President Kennedy's cabinet to replace Felix Frankfurter as an associate justice of the Supreme Court. Wirtz has been moved up from undersecretary to replace Goldberg as secretary of labor.

On their arrival from Chicago where the two made an unsuccessful effort to head off a telegraphers strike against the Chicago & North Western Railroad, the former labor lawyers tossed bouquets at each other.

Goldberg said he suggested Wirtz as a successor. The gray-haired justice-designate said he was "delighted beyond words" that Kennedy picked Wirtz.

"If Mr. Goldberg intends a pun and means to say he is delighted be-

Sleeping Sickness Hits Florida Area

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—An outbreak of sleeping sickness, an unusual disease that affects the brain and nervous system, has hit this Florida West Coast resort area, with varying repercussions.

Pinellas County officials report 108 suspected cases of the illness, formally called encephalitis, and say they suspect eight deaths have been caused by it.

Motel and hotel operators along the Gulf Coast beaches say they have received numerous out-of-town reservation cancellations, although most report they are filled up for the Labor Day weekend.

Sleeping sickness is marked by nerve cell destruction, muscular weakness and lethargy. Health officials say it is caused

Measure Contains Safeguards

No Company Will Dominate The Use Of Satellites

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy signed the communications satellite bill today, setting up the legal framework for a privately owned corporation to handle this country's part in a global network for messages and pictures.

He said the space system will provide benefits for all people and "contribute to world peace and understanding."

A large group of top officials and congressmen surrounded the President as he used 15 pens to sign the bill.

Kennedy said the new law, cause of a long controversy in Congress, provides "many safeguards to protect the public interest."

"No single company or group will have the power to dominate the corporation," he said in a statement.

"The general public, the communication industry, and the federal government all will have a voice. All will contribute their resources and all may reasonably hope to benefit."

Outlining benefits expected from the satellite system, Kennedy said there will be "vastly increased capacity to exchange information cheaply and reliably with all parts of the world by telephone, telegraph, radio and television."

"The ultimate result," he said, "will be to encourage and facilitate world travel, travel education, entertainment and the many kinds of professional, political and personal discourse which are essential to healthy human relationships and international understanding."

Kennedy said that in a few days he will send to the Senate for confirmation a list of the incorporators of the new enterprise.

The controversial bill, which tied up the Senate for weeks in a filibuster by liberals who called it a giveaway, landed on the President's desk Monday when the House passed it 371-10.

The bill, which was the version finally passed by the Senate and concurred in by the House, was very close to what the President asked for.

Two Helicopters Shot Down in South Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Communist guerrillas have shot down two more U.S. Army helicopters, wounding four Americans serving as advisers to Vietnamese forces.

A U.S. military spokesman said the Americans were evacuated after their copters were downed Thursday. They were not seriously wounded. Their names were not made public.

The helicopters were shot down as they airlifted troops into South Viet Nam's central highlands.

Steel Executives Defy Court Order

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top executives of four big steel companies defied subpoenas today from the Senate Antitrust subcommittee, failing to appear and produce data on production costs.

Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., the subcommittee chairman, denounced their refusal to appear as willful and premeditated contempt of Congress.

He recommended that his subcommittee cite the steel executives for contempt. The subcommittee was expected to go into closed session to decide whether to do so.

The four companies — Bethlehem, Republic, National and Armco — have challenged the subcommittee's jurisdiction and contended the subpoenaed cost data is confidential information.

The steel executives who were subpoenaed but failed to appear are: Bethlehem Steel Corp.: A. B. Homer, chairman and chief executive officer; Edmund Martin, president, and Frank R. Brugler, comptroller.

Republic Steel Corp.: Thomas F. Patton, president, and George M. Feiel, vice president and comptroller.

National Steel Corp.: Thomas E.

NFO Holding Action

Freeman Asked To Halt Moving

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The National Farmers Organization Thursday asked Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to order a check of the movement of cattle and lambs during the NFO holding action which is scheduled to begin at midnight today.

Oren Lee Staley, NFO president, talked with Freeman at the dedication of the new agriculture department center here.

The NFO had pledged not to sell livestock or grain until processors agree to long-range contracts providing for higher prices. The NFO has held several holding actions on hogs in the Middle West, but this will be the first to include grain.

Staley said he called to Freeman's attention some areas of packed and livestock regulations that he thought would "require attention."

He listed them as operation of feed lots by packer and chain stores or the feeding of cattle owned or controlled by packers and chain stores in commercial feed lots; feeding of cattle under contract by farmers with delivery dates to be determined by the packers and purchase of cattle for future delivery.

"We believe such a check will demonstrate the control of markets by packers and retail chains using the methods outlined above," Staley said. "These methods are in use at all times, they will only be magnified by the holding action."

Asked Freeman's reaction to the request, Staley said: "We were satisfied with the conference."

In his speech at the dedication Freeman praised the new center as a facility that will help reduce the cost of administering farm programs. The building will house a data processing center.

The facility will consolidate work now being done in buildings in Dallas, Portland, Denver, Minneapolis and Chicago.

"The public is better served because one set of records suffices where five were formerly required . . . all at a cost reduction of $800,000 per year," Freeman said.

Yonder Pleads Innocent

CHICAGO (AP) — Frank Yonder, the silent, alleged torturer member of a robbery gang which preyed on luxurious North Side and suburban families, has pleaded innocent to entering a Winnetka home and stealing $7,500 in cash and jewelry.

Yonder, 24, appeared in Criminal Court Thursday on four charges but the state's attorney limited his prosecution to the charge of robbing May 28 the Charles L. Bothof home in suburban Winnetka.

The Bothofs had identified Yonder as one of the gang who invaded their home and made off with more than $7,500 in valuables. They also accused Yonder of torturing Mrs. Bothof with lighted cigarettes.

Judge Abraham Brussels raised Yonder's bond from $80,000 to $160,000 after hearing testimony that Yonder had once jumped $1,000 bond and also had concealed a knife-like weapon, fashioned from a spoon, prior to his return from Michigan earlier this month.

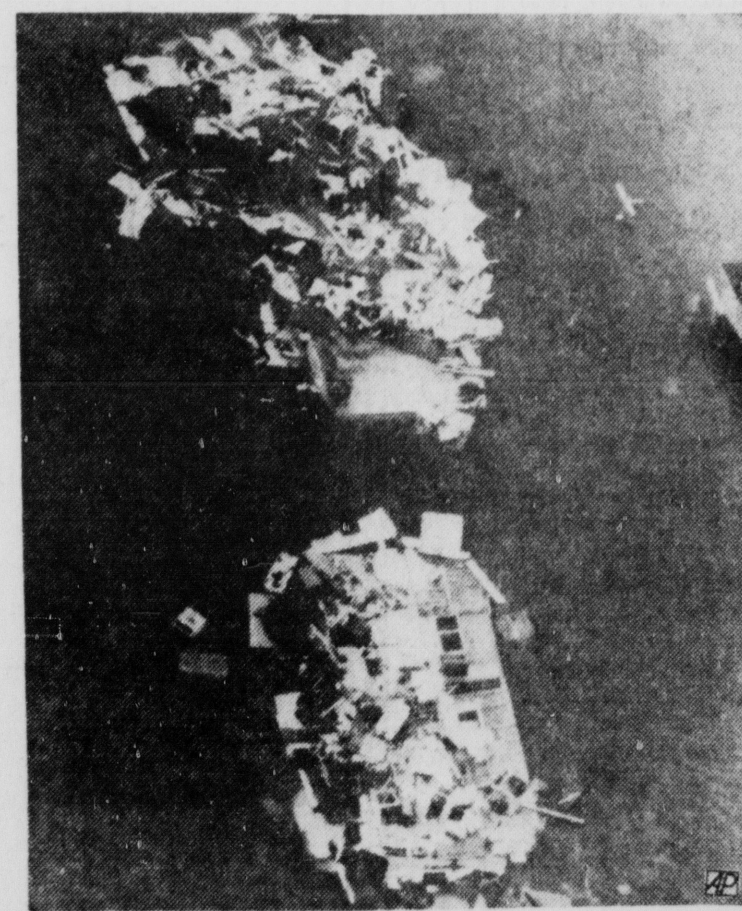

Judge Brussels set Sept. 5 for a hearing.

Yonder, who has not spoken to officials at Cook County jail since his extradition to Illinois, was arraigned a week ago but that hearing was continued when the former hairdresser's only spoken remark was "yes" when asked if he was Frank Yonder.

Yonder and alleged gang ring-leader Nick Guido, 41, were captured Aug. 4 near Ypsilanti, Mich. Guido is still at Ann Arbor, Mich., where he is fighting extradition.

Guido's wife, Patricia, 26, is in custody of the state's attorney's office. She has indicated her willingness to testify against other members of the gang, including her husband.

Another alleged gang member, Duane Pinkowski, 28, is also in custody.

Attend the Church of Your Faith Regularly

LIFE'S LABORATORY

Have you ever thought of your life as a laboratory? There are no test tubes and no scientific textbooks to aid us in our study, but we've been given other aids more important still. We call them God's formulas for living.

ARE WE AFRAID? Then we may test the Christ-given formula, "Be not afraid, only believe."

ARE WE LONELY? Then we reach for the promise of the Lord, "And lo, I am with you always..."

DO WE DOUBT THAT GOD CARES? Then we can analyze for ourselves the message of the Christ, "God so loved the world that He gave His Son..."

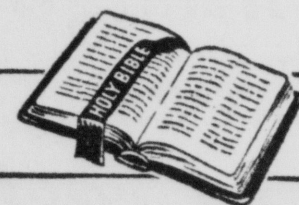

These are only a few of the formulas for our lives.

To test them we must first know them. The Church is ready to teach. We shall need direction also. The Church offers us the help of consecrated pastors and leaders.

Let's go to Church and learn the transforming power of God's formulas in the laboratories of our lives.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Illinois Votes 'No' on Wheat Control Quotes

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A heavy "no" vote was registered Thursday by Illinois wheat growers in balloting on the question of federal marketing quotas on the 1963 crop.

The quotas received more than the necessary 66.7 per cent approval by wheat farmers voting across the nation and will be continued for next year's crop.

In Illinois, however, 40 per cent of the vote was against the quotas. The count was 5,189 for, 3,432 against. Only about 16 per cent of the state's wheat growers voted.

Illinois has failed for three straight years to give the quotas a two-thirds vote of approval.

Before the vote, the chairman of the Illinois Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, Edward Meagher, said, "I would be very disappointed if the quotas did not pass."

Without the quotas, Meagher said wheat would be in oversupply as much as 60 cents below the present $2 a bushel level.

Last year 21 per cent of Illinois wheat growers cast their votes. There were 7,000 votes for the quotas and 3,400 against.

American Prelates Lively Participants In Vatican Councils

By JULES LOH
AP Staff Writer

America's Catholic bishops will take with them to the Second Vatican Council next October a background of lively participation in this rarely used form of church government.

At the last council, a century ago, 48 prelates from the United States participated. Some—notably Bishop Augustin Verot of Savannah, Ga., and Bishop Edward Fitzgerald of Little Rock, Ark.—treated the staid assembly to some forthright examples of Yankee determination.

Bishop Fitzgerald was one of only two participants who said "non placet" (I am not pleased) on the final vote to adopt a definition of papal infallibility. The other was an Italian, Bishop Aloisio Riccio of Cajazzo.

Bishop Verot also was opposed, but he made his reputation mainly through fiery speeches on lesser issues.

He thought it was a "disgraceful spectacle" for priests to hunt with guns and felt there should be a church law against it. He wanted the council to take a strong stand on racial justice and proposed a canon "anathematizing any who dare to assert that blacks are not of the human family."

The biggest issue of the First Vatican Council—whether to define papal infallibility—was not even on the proposed agenda when the assembly convened in 1869.

The main point of controversy wasn't whether the Pope was infallible when speaking on matters of faith and morals (only 15 of 601 bishops present were opposed to the doctrine) but whether it was advisable to define the doctrine at that time.

Most of the Americans felt it was not.

Archbishops Peter Kenrick of St. Louis and John Purcell of Cincinnati and Bishop Michael Domeneo of Pittsburgh led U.S. opposition. They claimed, one observer reported, "that the definition would be an insurmountable obstacle to the conversion of Protestants in the United States."

According to this writer, Domeneo felt that "if there be no setback, in 30 or 40 years the number of Catholics will be greater in North America than in Italy; and they will be not merely nominal, but real practicing Catholics. The only calamity that can destroy so fair a hope would be the doctrine of papal infallibility."

Present count: Italy 49 million Catholics, practicing and nominal; North America 50 million.

School Bus Service Starts September 6

School buses will not operate until the beginning of regular classes Sept. 6, according to an announcement made by the Dixon Public Schools today.

Bus service will be rendered on the same basis as last year. Only students living more than 1 1/4 miles from school are eligible to ride a bus.

Bus routes will start the year using the same schedules as last year. The drivers will have temporary bus lists the first day and corrected lists will be available soon, the school said.

Busses will travel only over township, county and state roads. Bus service will not be provided on private property such as long lanes or other private roads. Buses will not travel on certain public roads where road conditions or other factors prevent safe passage of buses and passengers. Where a safe or adequate turn-around is not available the buses will not operate and students living in these areas must provide their own transportation to the nearest point of safe pick up, according to school authorities.

To eliminate an excessive number of stops in a short distance, students may be asked to gather at one point, officials said.

Diabetes Test Clinic Tonight

The first monthly clinic of the Lee County Diabetes Detection program will be held in Dixon Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Lee County Health Dept., 316 Third St.

At the clinic session individuals may take a blood test to determine whether they have diabetes.

This is the beginning of a year-long program sponsored by the County Health Dept. and the Lee County Medical Assn. and coordinated by the Way-tan-ye Club.

A club spokesman Thursday said representatives from several organizations have been invited to take the test Friday. It is hoped these people will help create interest in the program among members of their organizations.

The spokesman pointed out anyone is free to come whether invited or not. But the method employed seemed a good way to achieve the maximum participation in the program during this year.

WGGA Plans Banquet to Close Season

Tuesday's award for low puts when regular golf was played by WGGA members at Plum Hollow Country Club, was won by Mrs. Ginny McCargar with a total of 16, and Mrs. Rosy Emmert, with 47, was awarded the prize for low score.

Other awards went to Mrs. Mary Jane Ellis, Mrs. Julia Leland, Mrs. Imogene Spangler, and Mrs. Lily Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Ellis was also declared winner of the WGGA handicap tournament when scores were tallied at the completion of the final round of play.

During a business meeting which followed dinner in the clubhouse, plans were made for the WGGA end-of-the-season banquet scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Sept. 18 at Plum Hollow and members are asked to make banquet reservations at the clubhouse by Sept. 11.

Mrs. Emmert will act as auctioneer when items donated by WGGA members will be sold during an auction planned for next Tuesday's meeting. Tee-off time for golf is set at 4 p.m., and a dinner and business meeting will precede the auction.

Chapter Members Are Invited to WOTM Meeting

An invitation to attend the WOTM Conference to be held Sept. 21-22-23 in the LaFayette Hotel, Rockford, was read at Tuesday's meeting of the Dixon WOTM Chapter in the Moose Home. The conference will be held in conjunction with the Illinois Moose Association, and the invitation was extended by Eleanor Strucker, Cicero, Deputy Grand Regent. Alma Ploeger, Rockford, will serve as general chairman, and Zola Kenney, Moosheart, Grand Recorder, will act as official visitor.

Mrs. Eugene Shoemaker, senior regent, reported on the July executive meeting held in Rockford, and winner of an impromptu fund-raising activity was Mrs. Verner Kirby. Chapter members voted to install two new members at the next meeting, and also voted to issue a monthly bulletin for members on WOTM and Local Order of the Moose activities beginning in September.

Two meetings were planned for September with the first scheduled for Sept. 14 in the Reynolds Hall with Mrs. Raymond Gittleton, Rochelle, as hostess. At both meetings corsages will be made from material provided by club members.

Miss Dorothy Sorrenson, West Brooklyn, was hostess to members of the Decca Corgage Club at a meeting held Monday in the Reynolds Town Hall and attended by ten members and guests. Each member answered roll call describing "a gift of flowers that had a lasting memory," and a report on the club's exhibit at the recent flower show sponsored by the Amboy Men's Garden Club, was given by Mrs. Kenneth Scaggs, West Brooklyn, corsage-making instructor for the club.

Teen-Age Tips

Are you hoping you'll be besieged by partners from the stag line at the next school dance? Well, here are a few pointers right from the boys themselves on what not to wear if you wish to be queen of the evening.

Big noisy bracelets piled on one arm make men nervous. Spindly heels frighten them, for they fear the "needle points" will cause an accident.

Knee-length skirts on less than perfect legs only draw attention to the imperfection. Huge hairdos on small girls look silly, not attractive.

So think over the opinions of your prospective dancing partners, girls, before you dress for the big evening.

Short Ribs

By Frank O'Neal

Dear Ann:

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: In the nine years we've been married my wife has gained 35 pounds. She is only 5'2" and she weighed 125 pounds when we married so you can imagine what she looks like now.

She has gone to three doctors in two years to find out why she has gained so much weight. She'd like a doctor to tell her she has a glandular problem, but no doctor has been able to find anything wrong with her glands, so naturally, they are all crazy.

Every evening at the dinner table she points out that she eats less than our seven-year-old. Actually, this is true. Frankly, I'm a little at a loss to figure out why she is so much overweight. Can you explain it? — ANXIOUS HUSBAND

Dear Husband: If the doctors can find nothing organically wrong with her it means she is eating more food than her body needs.

I'm not a detective so I can't tell you how she manages to smuggle the food into her mouth, but her weight is evidence that she is managing, somehow.

Many women nibble between meals. Others taste when they cook. The "tasting" is never considered "eating" of course—and the nibbling is forgotten. When they clear away the dishes some women eat the leftovers instead of putting them in the refrigerator or throwing them out. The body counts these calories, even if the eater does not.

If your wife honestly wants to lose weight she'll have to put herself in the hands of a doctor and stop making excuses.

Dear Ann: I'm 28 years old and feel the years slipping away. Worst of all I find myself hating my mother which makes me alternately guilty and furious.

Dad died when I was 16. I didn't go away to college because Mother couldn't be left alone. So I went to work.

I meet interesting people but I can't bring anyone home because mother bores them to death. The house is a mess because mother doesn't like to clean. She refuses to have help because a maid "gets in the way."

She opens my mail, listens to my phone conversations, and faked a heart attack last year to keep me from taking a vacation.

I'm dying to move out and mother could manage financially without me, but whenever I bring it up she says she's not well enough to live alone.

Please, please tell me what to do. —KNOTS IN MY STOMACH

Dear Knots: You know what to do, you just want someone to tell you to go ahead and do it. So—I'll tell you. Move out now, while you can still make a life for yourself. You owe your mother respect. She gave you life, but it's your life and you don't have to give it back to her.

Dear Ann: I'm bewildered, hurt, and embarrassed. Please tell me if I deserve what happened yesterday. A friend (not close, but we work together) lost her mother. The office took up a collection for flowers. I was absent that day.

The next morning I went out and bought a lovely sympathy card. I sent it to my friend and wrote on the bottom, "I'm so sorry."

Yesterday the card was returned to me in the mail with this note: "I'm telling you as a friend. This is in bad taste. A hand-written note would have been proper."

Is she right? I am—MORTIFIED

Dear Mort: A hand-written sympathy note is considered a cut above the store-bought kind, but a dignified card is not in bad taste. If anyone is guilty of bad taste (and bad temper) it is your friend. Perhaps grip blurred her judgment. (Copyright 1962, Field Enterprises, Inc.)

Respite From Economic Issues Gives Breather

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Perhaps the most comfort businessmen can derive from this week's presidential news conference is that for the first time in a long spell there weren't any questions about the state of the economy.

All hands seem willing to let lie, for the moment at least, all of the summer's built-up fears about whether we are going.

And business could be the better for it. Industry and trade have problems enough of their own without everyone getting in on the guessing game. Also the publicized fears tend to feed the very trends some have direly predicted.

Even the stock market has stopped being a barometer, this week at least. It appears to be waiting for everyone to come back from vacation full of vinegar, if not big new ideas.

Business traditionally picks up after Labor Day. And stock traders seem to feel there'll be time enough to wait and see if tradition is followed rather than trying to guess ahead of time.

But the momentary truce in the talk about the economy's parlous future is about the only uncertainty that isn't still around.

What Congress will do is the most immediate. In the final weeks of a session many business plans are held up to see if specific proposals are accepted or rejected. Congress can change its mind quickly and frequently in the final days.

And business has a big stake in many of the questions President Kennedy did discuss at his news conference — foreign trade agreements, the Cuban and Berlin problems, the atomic race, and even the makeup of the Supreme Court, which passes on a number of business problems each year.

American business has become so involved in political decisions, domestic and international, that any swift change in any of these

Ken Maynard Remembers The Old Days Long Gone

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ken Maynard relaxed under the awning outside his trailer home and talked about the old days.

"There was Tom Mix, Buck Jones, Hoot Gibson and me," he recalled. "They called us the Big Four of the westerns. We had two things in common: We were all range cowboys and we had all come to pictures from wild west shows."

Ken's voice had a touch of sadness. This week he buried Hoot, whom he had known for 40 years in Hollywood. They had ridden the range together in a co-starring series. They worked hard and played hard; in the 1930s they cracked up in a plane during air races.

"Hoot was hurt pretty bad in that crash," the old cowboy said. "But he got over it. What really banged him up was a horse he was riding in a show in Buffalo. It reared up and fell on him. Hoot had a bad back after that happened. A lot of these old injuries come back to haunt you."

Ken is knitting a broken shoulder and is once again rehearsing his roping tricks. He hopes to get back on the rodeo circuit before the season closes.

How did he break his shoulder? "I should say that my horse slipped," he said with a hearty laugh. "But it was darnfool thing—I fell off the top of the trailer."

Ken and his wife Bertha live in a cozy trailer near the center of San Fernando, 15 miles north of Hollywood. They recently sold their Valley home and are living a less encumbered life, for a while at least.

Now a well-padded but still powerful 67, Ken spends many weeks of the year doing his roping act at rodeos and fairs. "Once I had 13 straight weeks of bookings and I never left the state of Texas," he said. He was born in Mission, Tex.

A world's champion roper and bronc rider, he was starring in Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey Circus when Fox brought him to Hollywood in 1922.

"I didn't know it at the time, but they brought me out as a kind of club to keep Tom Mix and Buck Jones in line," he said. "The boys were giving the studio trouble about options. Fox never used me, so I got out. I didn't have much trouble getting a job."

He became a star immediately and for 20 years appeared in one western series after another. His peak salary was $5,000 a week, but he netted as much as $8,000 a week when he was operating his own company.

Rising costs and television wiped out the program western after the war, and Ken dropped out of films after 1947. Asked if he saved his money, he said "I've still got a couple of bucks."

RUSSELLS AT THE PO

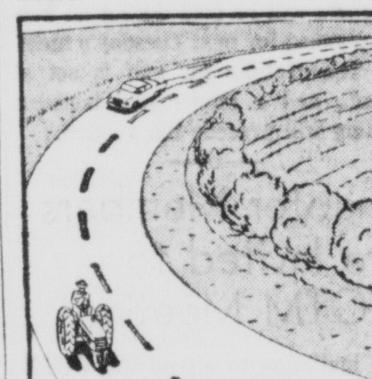

ISLAMORADA, Fla. (AP)—Except for one nine-month period, the Russell family has been in charge of the post office in this little community in the Florida Keys since 1908.

John Henry Russell became Islamorada's first postmaster in June, 1908. A non-Russell served from late October, 1908, to early July, 1909. Then John A. Russell, John Henry's son, took over and held the post until his death in 1954. John A.'s brother, Clifton, succeeded to the office and still holds it.

MORE ABOUT SPEED

It is reasonable to expect drivers to know the general provisions of the Illinois speed laws insofar as they relate to absolute limits. Maximum limits are posted at frequent intervals on rural highways and city streets. These may vary according to the standards established by law and studies made by highway engineers.

Some drivers do not realize, however, that the speed law contains other regulations besides the maximum limits. A driver is required to slow down when—

- ... Approaching and crossing an intersection.
- ... Approaching and going around a curve.
- ... Approaching the top of a hill.
- ... Driving upon a narrow or winding roadway.
- ... Entering a highway.

Decreasing speed in compliance with the above requirements means driving slower than the maximum limits which are posted in that area of the highway. The safe rate of speed must be determined by the driver himself, according to conditions. For additional guidance, highway engineers post curves with warning signs which indicate the maximum safe speed. The traffic law provides that the vehicle must be driven at a speed which is reasonable and proper with regard to traffic conditions, and the driver must exercise due care to avoid colliding with pedestrians and other vehicles.

The Illinois speed law also prohibits a driver from operating a motor vehicle so slowly as to impede or block the normal movement of traffic. There is no absolute minimum except on the tollways, where a 10 mph minimum is posted. On other roads the driver is required to use his own good judgment. If the mechanical condition of the vehicle is such that it cannot be driven safely except at a very slow rate of speed, it should not be on the highway at all.

The Doctor Says

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for NEA

Those of us who have to struggle with the weight problem concentrate almost exclusively on food intake. Rarely do we concern ourselves with variations in energy output. And, on the few occasions when the relationship between weight and physical activity is brought to our attention, we are apt to be treated to exaggerated claims made by trainers, exercisers, masseurs and others of the "stomach-arm" set.

A new book by an Australian authority ("Food for Better Performance") is particularly welcome for its valuable table of caloric expenditures. Here, in brief, are some of the surprising figures on hourly caloric loss:

- Less than 50 calories — sweeping floors, washing small clothes, typing (electric or mechanical) and watch repairing.
- 100 — walking at a rate of 2 m.p.h.
- 100 to 200 — canoeing at a 2½ m.p.h., riding a walking horse, walking 3 m.p.h. or working as a machine fitter, joiner or fitter.
- 200 to 300 — bicycling at a rate of 5½ m.p.h., dancing fox-trot or waltz, golfing, swimming breast or back stroke, making beds, pushing a wheel barrow holding 22 pounds or loading a chemical mixer.
- 300 to 400 — canoeing at a rate of 4 m.p.h., dancing the rumba, playing tennis, walking 4 m.p.h. if body weight is 200 pounds or scrubbing on hands and knees.
- 400 to 600 — climbing slopes, bicycling at a rate of 13 m.p.h., riding a horse that is trotting or galloping, running 4 to 7 miles or cross country, skiing on hard snow at moderate speed, swimming side stroke or digging with a pick or shovel.
- As an example of the average daily expenditure of calories made by a sedentary worker (typist), Dr. R. C. Hutchinson gives an estimate of but 700 calories. Or about the amount of energy expended in just one hour in climbing, bicycling at a rate of 13 m.p.h., running 7½ miles, skiing or swimming side stroke.

SNEAKY THIEF

A frequent complaint of conscientious wives is that they work hard to please their husbands only to have their husbands consistently find fault about "little things."

The question is: Are the "little things" a husband complains about actually big things in his eyes? That's what wives whose husbands don't seem to appreciate their efforts ought to try to figure out.

If a wife concentrates on doing what she thinks is important and what she thinks her husband should praise her for and all the time he keeps noticing the "little things" she neglects to do, chances are they don't seem little to him.

They might—in truth—seem much more important than many of the things his wife considers important. So if a wife is trying to please her husband, she is just spinning her wheels unless she acknowledges that little things are really big things if her husband considers them so.

If she fails to do this she is almost sure to end up counting all the things she has done to be a "good wife" and wondering what is wrong with her husband because he doesn't seem to appreciate her efforts.

A lot less effort directed toward doing what her husband considers important instead of what she is sure is important could make all the difference in the world.

Nothing so handicaps a wife in being a good wife as refusing to pay attention to the signs that tell her what pleases him most and what annoys him most.

The new gate house at Oakwood cemetery has been completed and is now occupied by the office force. The main entrance which has been closed during the construction has been opened to the public. The building adds greatly to the appearance of the cemetery and fills a long felt want.

NORWAY AND JAPAN MEET—in the persons of these two students, Marit Hagrum, Oslo, Norway, left, and Mihiko Masubuchi, Tokyo, Japan. The pretty foreign exchange students will be studying at Mt. Morris High School this year.

East and West Come Together In Mt. Morris

MT. MORRIS—Two young ladies from opposite ends of the world are new friends today in Mt. Morris. Both girls are foreign exchange students who will attend Mt. Morris High School as seniors this year.

Michiko Masubuchi, Tokyo, Japan, and Marit Hagrum, Oslo, Norway, both arrived about a week ago to become acquainted with their new homes before school begins. Michiko is a guest of the Don Miller family and Marit is visiting the Mahlon Sweet home.

The Mt. Morris Chapter of American Field Service, sponsors of Michiko, with Marit as a special guest, held a get-acquainted meeting Wednesday night at the high school to give friends an opportunity to meet the students. The chapter sponsors these international scholarships in cooperation with the student council and interested friends. Wayne Pierce is president of the Mt. Morris chapter.

Marit came to Mt. Morris through the International Christian Youth exchange. She is 18 and has graduated from high school in her homeland. She is a little hesitant about expressing her thoughts in English but it is obvious when speaking with her this will soon disappear. She says Americans have been friendlier than she had expected. Her hobbies are skiing in the winter and hiking in the summer. The biggest thrill she's had since arriving in Mt. Morris, she said, was a camping trip with the Sweet's. This was a new and exciting experience for her.

Marit said she plays the piano and "the guitar, just a little bit, for myself." She has a younger sister in Norway.

Michiko, 17, is the youngest of four children in her Japanese family. She came to America by jet plane with stops at Wake Island and Hawaii. In Hawaii, she was thrilled to see the movie star, John Wayne at the airport.

Tiny and soft spoken, this Oriental miss is most captivating. Her favorite American food, she said, was potatoes! They eat potatoes in Japan, she continued, but these taste so much better. She likes to watch television and go to movies, much the same as teen-agers here. The longest auto ride she ever had was the drive from Chicago's O'Hare Field to Mt. Morris.

The life of these two students will be far different in Mt. Morris than they have had at home but both girls are anxious to begin school and make the new friends they are hoping for.

Flamettes Plan Birthday Party

AMBOY — Flamettes September committee met in the home of Mrs. Myrtle Eckburg Wednesday evening to make plans for the group's annual birthday supper which they will sponsor as a fund raising project.

The supper will be held at the fire station.

Members may invite as many guests as they wish, they should bring table service for each guest and food to pass.

The committee will furnish the meat and hot and cold drinks. The program for the evening will be motion pictures shown by Miss Marie Thompson, Dixon.

Members are requested to notify the committee as to the number of guests they have invited by Saturday, Sept. 8.

The committee is: Mrs. Eckburg, Mrs. Roy Farman, Mrs. K. S. MacKinnon and Mrs. Gail Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gardner are the parents of a son born at the Mendota Community Hospital, Aug. 25. He has been named Dennis Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith were among those from Amboy who attended funeral services for E. E. Holliston at the Merritt Funeral Home, Mendota, Thursday afternoon. The Holliston family were former Amboy residents.

Mrs. Thomas Lepperd, Dixon, spent Wednesday visiting here in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. K. S. MacKinnon and son, John.

Memory Lapse

Michael Hulan, 4, threw his pajamas down the laundry chute of his Detroit home, then climbed in after them. His distraught parents called firemen, who had to chop through a wall and saw out a section of the metal chute to get the boy out. He was unhurt except for a bump on the head.

Asked why he went into the chute, Michael replied: "I've forgotten."

Big 10 Opens Practice Sessions Saturday

Wildcats, Purdue Have 28 Lettermen Back From 1961

CHICAGO (AP)—More than 700 brawny, talented athletes will say goodbye to vacation Saturday as the Big Ten opens its traditionally grueling practice sessions for its 67th football campaign.

Only Ohio State's defending titlist will be absent from practice fields Saturday. Coach Woody Hayes has decided to wait for Labor Day before he drives his Buckeye herd through two-a-day sessions.

Of 729 players who will report to the 10 squads, 328 will be sophomores, 228 will be juniors and 173 enter their final academic year.

Ara Parseghian at Northwestern and Jack Mollenkopf of Purdue will welcome 28 returning lettermen each, the highest in the conference. Minnesota's Rose Bowl conquerors have the least number of returning monogram winners, 16.

Bill Reed, beginning his second year as Big Ten commissioner, observes, "The Big Ten appears to be moving into one of its more well-balanced seasons in years. We are especially happy for this prospect because it will make one of the nation's finest showcases of football even greater.

Indiana, Northwestern and Purdue open their seasons Sept. 22 with the first three of 26 non-conference games, including five against Notre Dame. The remaining teams kick-off the following week.

Illinois plays Northwestern and Indiana meshes with Wisconsin Oct. 6—the first week of conference play.

Ohio State, which captured its 12th Big Ten title in 1961, carries an eight-

Gunderson Reaches Semifinals

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—JoAnne Gunderson, pretty, 23-year-old twice former champion, won her way Thursday into the semi-finals of the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championships with a 1-up, 20 hole victory over Barbara Williams of Richmond, Calif.

Gundy, the 1957 and 1960 titlist, and Miss Williams halved the 19th hole, and Gundy won the 20th with a par 5 and her opponent went one over.

Gundy faces Curtis Cup teammate Tish Preuss of Pompano Beach, Fla., and 17-year-old Annie Baker of Maryville, Tenn., plays giant-killer Patsy Hahn of Wilmington, Del., in the 18-hole semifinals this afternoon. The winners play 36 holes Saturday for the title and once again there will be a new champion. Defending champion Anne Quast Decker, attempting to become the first queen to repeat since Betty Jameson in 1939-40, ran into Miss Hahn Thursday.

The 22-year-old five times Delaware state champion fired a 1-under-par 33 on the front nine of the 6,161-yard, par 36-36-72 course, built a 5-up lead over Mrs. Decker and coasted to a 5 and 4 upset.

Miss Baker, a senior at Maryville High School, eliminated Marcia McLachlan of Danbury, Conn., 2 and 1 while Miss Preuss was one over par in downing Mrs. Harry Nevil, New York state champion, 4 and 2.

NORTHWESTERN CANDIDATES—Rich Lawton (left) and Chuck Brainerd are among sixty-eight candidates reporting for opening practice drill at Northwestern University this weekend. Coach Ara Parseghian has twenty-eight lettermen back from last year's squad. Lawton, a junior guard and Brainerd, a senior halfback, both lettered last year when the Wildcats compiled a 4-5 record. The Northwestern team opens its season September 22 against South Carolina at Dyche Stadium in Evanston.

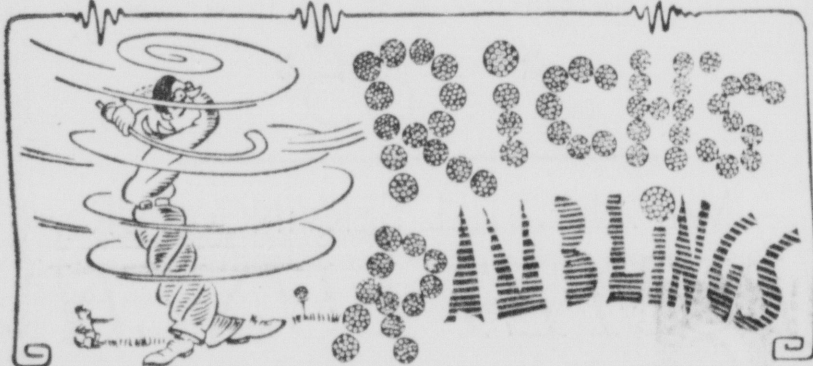

Houston Cops Pony League Championship

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Houston won the Pony League World Series Thursday night, beating Greensboro, N. C., 4-1.

Hugh Hamilton was the winning pitcher, while Mike Long took the loss. Hamilton struck out 15 and walked only one batter.

John Brock carried the bulk of the Houston batting load with three hits. In the third inning he doubled, driving in Mike Pearce, who had singled, and in the seventh, he hit a bases-empty homer.

Greensboro's only run came in the fifth on a home run by catcher Dean Shore.

Whether or not the 1964 edition of the Hambletonian will be held in DuQuoin during the annual DuQuoin State Fair is still not known. The Hambletonian society, meeting in a post-race session yesterday, voted to holdup their decision until the entire 21-member board meets in New York October 21.

This action by the board could mean that the Hayes brothers, owners of the Fairgrounds, may lose the contract after next year's race. If the race moves in '64, one of the most likely candidates to capture the contract is Washington Park in Chicago. Of the other three tracks making bids, their offer seems to be the best.

Other tracks submitting bids this year are Good Time Park in Goshen, New York and the Indiana State Fair. Goshen was the site of the Hambletonian for 27 years before it shifted to DuQuoin.

The Hayes brothers have asked for a new five-year contract after their extended one-year pact expires. Their closed bid called for a gross purse of 45 per cent of the race's nominating eligibility fees or $45,000, whichever is greater. Generally the race's purse at DuQuoin has been more than $100,000. This year's purse was $116,612, fifth largest since the race began in 1926.

Washington Park's offer was the largest of all the bids. They offered a minimum of $100,000 for five years. This would gross about $200,000 and become the richest harness race, topping the $169,000 Messenger Stake for 3-year-old pacers in New York.

The Washington Park committee also stated that any profits from Hambletonian Day would be given to the Community Chest Fund. They suggest having the classic race during the middle of September. The group also stipulated that no parimutuel betting would be allowed if the Hambletonian Society so desired.

The Goshen bid was for a $50,000 purse for five years. Parimutuel betting is permitted at the track where it is not at the DuQuoin Fair. The Indiana State Fair group offered an added $40,000 for a three year pact. Betting is prohibited in the state of Indiana also.

Since the race was moved to DuQuoin records have been set in attendance, mile heats, gross purses and winning shares. The only stipulations regulating the location of the race is that it be held on a regulation one mile track and in the daytime.

The Vet's League will open its bowling season September 4. Bowling in the early shift will be Royal Palms

Brock Not Placed On Waivers by Chicago Bears

BEMIDJI, Minn. (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings said Thursday night that the Chicago Bears had decided not to let rookie tackle Clyde Brock of Utah State get away on waivers.

The Bears had placed Brock on the waiver list and he was awarded to the Vikings over the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers on the basis of the Minnesota club's lower finish in the National Football League in 1961.

The Bears then reclaimed Brock, probably in the hope of negotiating a trade involving him.

The 6-3, 280-pounder was among the most sought-after linemen in the nation last season and was drafted by the Bears.

The Vikings still placed Ted Stute, claimed only this week on waivers from Cleveland, back on the waiver list.

San Diego Wins PC League Title

VANCOUVER (AP)—The San Diego Padres Thursday night won their first Pacific Coast League pennant since 1954 by edging the Vancouver Mounties, 3-2 in the seven-inning opener of a doubleheader.

Right-hander John Tisouris went the distance for his 13th victory as the Padres stretched their margin to 14 full games over second place Salt Lake City.

Cincinnati Tips Dodgers, 5-4; Second Place Giants Win, 3-2

By The Associated Press
Author-pitcher Jim Brosnan trudged out of the bullpen in the ninth inning Thursday night and preserved a 5-4 Cincinnati triumph over National League leading Los Angeles that kept the defending champion Reds within the range of the Dodgers.

The third-place Reds led 5-0 behind Jim O'Toole's 5-hitter when the Dodgers rallied in the ninth. Three runs were in and the bases were loaded when Brosnan got the call. He struck out Duke Snider, but Maury Wills beat out a hit, making it 5-4 and leaving the bases loaded. Jim Gilliam stepped up, worked the count to 3-2, then lifted a soft fly to center field.

The triumph, salvaging the last of the three-game series, left the Reds 5½ games behind the Dodgers, who are 2½ in front of second-place San Francisco. The Giants closed ground as Jack Sanford posted his 13th straight victory, 3-2 over Milwaukee, on home runs by Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda and Jim Davenport.

Pittsburgh clipped the Chicago Cubs 5-3, but again had to call on relief ace ElRoy Face—who responded with his 21st save. Chicago second baseman Ken Hubbs played errorless ball for the 72nd consecutive game—one game short of Bobby Doerr's record.

Philadelphia used Don Demeter's grand slam homer and a run-scoring single by Roy Sievers for five runs in the eighth to beat New York 8-7, the Mets using five pitchers in the inning and tying a major league record.

Four in First
The Reds pounced on Dodger starter Stan Williams (12-9) for four runs in the first inning. Jerry Lynch's double drove in the run that proved to be decisive in the fifth.

Mays and Cepeda hammered consecutive homers in the first while Davenport connected in the sixth for the eventual game-winner off Spahn 14-12, who had won six in a row.

Sanford, 19-6 had a one-hitter until the seventh when Frank Bolling and Spahn hit homers. The Giants used five relievers.

Don Clendenon paced the Pirates' offensive with a homer and two doubles, driving in four runs. The Phillies' uprising tagged Robert G. Miller, 2-2, with the defeat while giving the triumph to Jack Baldschun, 8-7.

American League

Joy was unrestrained in Baltimore when the Orioles swept five straight from the mighty New York Yankees over the weekend.

Thursday night, Washington clipped the Orioles, 3-2 for the third time in four games since the Yankees sweep.

In the only other American League game, the Chicago White Sox widened their fourth place lead to two games over the Detroit Tigers, beating them 5-4.

The Yankees, whose chances of blowing the pennant are taken seriously only in Minnesota and Southern California, open the final month's drive by entertaining the Kansas City Athletics tonight.

Yankee ace Whitey Ford (13-7), will go against Ed Rakow (12-14).

The pesky A's beat the Yanks three of five during the recent road trip that wound up 6-11 for the world champions, with the five Baltimore defeats tacked on the end.

Twins in Boston

The Minnesota Twins, two games back, are at Boston, with Dick Stigman (9-3) facing no-hit Bill Monbouquette (11-12).

The Los Angeles Angels, three games back despite having been written off about once a week since Memorial Day, meet Washington in two, with Ted Bowsfield (8-7) and Don Lee (11-9) opposing Claude Osteen (7-10) and Steve Hamilton (3-5). The Angels next invade Yankee Stadium for a four game set, beginning with a Labor Day doubleheader.

Dave Stenhouse threw a 9-hitter for the Senators. Don Lock provided the eventual winning run with a home run in the second.

Al Smith hammered a two-run homer in the eighth for the White Sox, who added an unearned run in the ninth on pitcher Terry Fox' error for the winning margin.

American Entries In Second

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Richard Stearns and Lynn Williams Jr., of Wilmette, Ill., finished third and fourth in Harbor Glider in two races of the World Star Sailing Championships Thursday, and took over second place in the over-all standings.

Five other American entrants ranked in the top 10 after three of the five races to determine the world champions.

The Portuguese brothers, Duane and Fernando Bello, sailing "Fameca," retained their first place position with 21 points in the unofficial tabulation.

Stearns and Williams, who finished fourth in the first race Wednesday, had 211.

The defending champions, Bill Buchanan and Douglas Knight of Puget Sound, Wash., won Thursday's first race, but slipped to 14th in the second and held fourth place in frolic with 193 points.

The Portuguese Espadarte sailed by Joaquim Fiuza and Jose Reis, held third with 200 points.

Joseph Burbek and Dan Dowd, of Long Island Sound, N. Y., in Cyranos, finished second Wednesday, second in Thursday's first race, then 30th in the next one, holding fifth place with 188 points.

By JOC CULLEY
The winners of the 12 and under doubles divisions in the Telegraph tennis tournament are George Covert and Ron Koesler in the boys' bracket and the tandem of Shelly Long and Kathy Wentling in the girls' division.

Covert and Koesler by winning thus retained the title they won last year. In the finals Covert and Koesler defeated the team of Ken Glass and Irl Flanagan.

Covert and Koesler won the first set by a count of 6-3. In the second set, Glass and Flanagan fought back to take a 4-2 lead before Covert and Koesler reeled off four straight games to take a 6-4 win.

Wentling and Long are also repeat winners in their division. They clinched their victory by defeating Loretta Burke and Berly Branson in the finals by a 6-1, 6-3 score.

Branson and Burke, who both just started tennis this year, advanced to the finals with a series of upsets before falling to their more experienced opponents.

Poland's 'Iron Woman' Still Playing Tennis

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—The "Iron woman" of tennis from behind the Iron Curtain is Jadwiga Jedrzejowska, still going strong after more than 30 years on the courts.

"It's wonderful to be back—I never thought it would happen," the 49-year-old Polish matron said today, scanning the broad green expanse of the West Side Tennis Club.

"It's like a dream."

Jadwiga is playing again in the United States Championships where 25 years ago—in 1937—she gained the women's singles final before losing to Anita Lizana of Chile.

"I returned in 1938 and lost in the semifinals," she recalled. "That was my last year. The war came, and . . ."

Jadwiga has been Poland's No. 1 player since 1929 and she has won the national championship 26 times. She was finalist at Wimbledon in 1937, losing to England's Dorothy Round.

Inspections, Safety Runs Begin Today

CLERMONT, Ind. (AP)—Safety inspections and practice runs were scheduled today in the opening of the eighth annual National Championship Drag Races that will continue through Labor Day.

More than 1,000 automobiles with finely tuned engines capable of generating speeds up to 175 miles an hour were on hand at Raceway Park, a sprawling race plant 10 miles west of Indianapolis.

Representing investments totaling about $3 million, they came from 41 states for the events which will have more than $45,000 in prizes, including two new Pontiac automobiles to the winning Top and Stock Eliminators.

Wally Parks, president of the sponsoring National Hot Rod Association, predicted a record 60,000 fans would watch the competition.

Time trials and class eliminations are scheduled for Saturday with national record runs and elimination finals set for Monday.

AFL Clubs Have Final Exhibitions This Week

By The Associated Press
All National Football League clubs take their next-to-last licks in exhibition play this weekend.

And it's the last chance for the American Football League teams, who begin regular season play next weekend, with Denver and Oakland meeting tonight in Stockton, Calif., and champion Houston playing the Dallas Texans in Miami, Fla.

Saturday afternoon, San Diego entertains the New York Titans while Buffalo is at Boston Saturday night, rounding out the AFL activity.

There are five NFL games Saturday night, with the Cleveland Browns (3-0) playing the Los Angeles Rams (2-1) in Los Angeles; the Dallas Cowboys (0-3) taking on San Francisco (2-1) at Sacramento, Calif.; the Detroit Lions (2-1) playing the St. Louis Cards (1-1-1) in Omaha, Neb.; Philadelphia's Eagles (2-1) facing Pittsburgh (1-2) at Hershey, Pa., and two winless clubs, Chicago (0-3) and Washington (0-3) tangling in Norfolk, Va.

Sunday afternoon, the Baltimore Colts (3-0) and Minnesota Vikings (0-3) play in the Twin Cities, while the New York Giants (1-1-1) return to the scene of their 37-0 shellacking by the Green Bay Packers (4-0) in the 1961 title game for a Labor Day night game.

A REPUBLICAN SALUTE—This large elephant, symbolic of the Republican Party, was made in Amboy for the annual Farmer's Round-up parade. The paper mache animal trumpeted and blew clouds of smoke while "Uncle Sam" on his back, waved an American flag to parade watchers.

Clear Mental Health Employees

CHICAGO (P)—Two employees accused of mistreating inmates of the Peoria State Hospital have been cleared by an investigation of the state mental health department, a state official has announced.

Lowell Sachnoff, executive assistant to the director of mental health, said Thursday lie detector tests indicated the employees were truthful in denying the charge. The employees were unnamed.

The charges came from an anonymous deputy sheriff who wrote Gov. Otto Kerner charging mistreatment of a patient he took to the hospital for admission.

Maryland was on the Union side during the Civil War.

Unusual GOP Symbol Unveiled at Amboy

AMBOY—How many newspapers does it take to make one large elephant? Quite a few according to Deane Emery, and he should know, as he was chairman of the committee that made the animated pachyderm that attracted so much attention as it led the Republican delegation in the Farmer's Roundup parade Sunday afternoon.

The ten foot long and six foot high emblem of the Republican party was made of paper mache, as was the figure of "Uncle Sam" on his back.

Early in August Deane was given the job of producing the float for the parade. He immediately enlisted the aid of 12 friends who spent all their spare time for three weeks working on it.

First a wooden framework was constructed on a sheet of plywood. This frame work was covered with chicken wire—122 feet of it to be exact. The paper mache was applied next. It was made from stacks and stacks of newspapers collected from all parts of town, 30 pounds of flour and 5 pounds of powdered wall sizing mixed with water. After the mixture was applied to the chicken wire and shaped, it was left to dry and then painted.

Tusks were made from chair legs and painted white. As the float moved along the parade route, the head raised at the sound of the elephant's trumpeting and smoke came from its trunk at the same time "Uncle Sam's" arm raised to wave an American flag.

This animation was the tricky part, Deane admitted. It was accomplished by having Lee Smith ride inside the beast and manipulate wires with his feet that were attached to the head and "Uncle Sam's" arm. The trumpeting was a boat horn and the smoke was the exhaust from a CO2 fire extinguisher.

In commenting on the project, Emery said it was a lot of work, but it was also a lot of fun and the group already had several requests to take it to other nearby towns.

Also on the float committee were Bob Newman, Dennis Eisenberg, Darrel Rachee, Dick Vivian, Shirley Newman, Michelyn Full, John Ditch, and Bill Hull. There were also many others who joined the committee in working on the float.
